The Tease

Lilian Holmes

You're a nuisance, I declare;

You tease me so, it isn't fair;

You pounce on me from everywhere,

And seize my hat, and clutch my hair,

And tie my clothes in knots, and tear

The leaves and blossom from the pear.

I wish that I could set a snare

To catch you—but I wouldn't dare,

For though you tease me, I declare,

O wind, if you were never there,
