

Creative question:-

1. From the very early Ramijuddin leads his life as a rickshaw puller. His father Momtaz Mia was known as a hawker who had been in town. On the other hand his mother cultivates poultry in the village.

- How many kinds of economic activities in Bangladesh?
- What does mean economy of Bangladesh? Explain it.
- What kinds of activities of Ramijuddin and his father? Discuss.
- The economic activities that Ramijuddin, his father and his mother perform are playing the main role in the economy of Bangladesh. Explain this statement.

2. One day Swati came to her uncle's house. At dining table, she observed that there is tomato sauce with other items. Seeing it, she became astonished because the sauce was not of tomato.

- What is processing?
- Briefly discuss the processing industries of Bangladesh?
- What are the advantages of processed food? Explain.
- What are the problem and solution of processing industries?

3. The teacher said in class that Bangladesh imports many commodities and machinery from abroad every year. Thus, a large amount of money is spent. Now the amount of imported expenditure is going up gradually. In this way, the national development is being interrupted. In addition, the economists think that the expenditure of imported commodities should be reduced.

- Give the definition of export trade.
- Why is the large industry known as the backbone of a country's economy?
- Write the imported goods of Bangladesh that are represented by the aforementioned stem.
- Do you agree with the statement given by the economist in the stem? Show your logic.

4. Observe the table below and answer the questions given.

Import Trade	Export Trade
Food grains, Edible oil, Petroleum, Clothes, Yarn, Fertilizer, Chemical goods, Vehicles.	Jute and jute goods, Tea, Leather, Ready- made garments etc.
Expenditure: 21,038 million dollar	Income: 16,207 million dollar

- What is WTO?
- Locate the characteristics of the international trade of BD in the light of the above table.
- Discuss the importance of export and import from Bangladesh point of view.
- What can you understand about the foreign trade of Bangladesh from above table?

Analyse.

*Solve Creative questions from the text book.