Read the following passage and answer the question no 1-4.

Babul and his family live on the island of Dublar Char. Life is good for the family now, but that wasn't true after Cyclone Aila. Babul doesn't remember Cyclone Aila, but his parents often talk about that terrible night in 2009.

Babul's father told him what happened that day. There was light rain in the morning on 25 May. In the afternoon, the wind started to blow and people began to run for their homes. His grandparent checked the family's emergency kit. Their torch was working and they had extra batteries. They put torch, batteries and first aid kit in plastic box.

By the evening, the river was rising. The winds of Cyclone Aila shook the walls of the house as if there was an earthquake. Everyone was afraid. Nipa began to cry. Suddenly, there was an awful noise and the family's roof blew away! The sky was dark but the family could see the trees flying over their head.

After Cyclone Aila, people worked together. Nipa's school became the shelter for the survivors. Babul and family went to live there. The government of Bangladesh and the NGOs came to help. In time people rebuilt their villages and bridges. They planted new crops and trees. Babul feels happy when he looks at the trees and his sister Nipa, but feels sad about his grandfather.
