

A) Multiple Choice Questions:1×5=05

- Which sector is the main source of industrial raw materials of the country?
a) Agriculture b) industry c) natural resource d) communication
- What is the percentage of the contribution of agriculture in our national economy?
a) 10% b) 20% c) 30% d) 40%
- Service sector work for what?
A) Supplies raw materials b) creates opportunity for employment
c) Makes commodities available d) improvement of living standard
- Which sector earns valuable foreign currency for the country?
a) Agricultures b) industry c) trade & commerce d) service sector
- In urban area a vast number of people live in where?
a) Aristocratic area b) rented houses c) slums d) footpath

B) Short Question Answer:1×5=05

- Why Bangladesh is called an agro-based country?
- At present what are we being used in agriculture which has increase the production of crops?
- Whose keep the urban economic life active?
- Why the difference between the rural and urban way of life is getting reduced?
- How we turn our population into human resource?

C) Creative Question:10

With some obstacles Bangladesh has excellent prospect of development. It has many natural resources like coal, gas oil etc. If we can explore and utilize properly then increasing our industrialization who helps to develop our economy. Only by proper planning and hard labor without having natural resources Japan and Singapore have acquired reputation as developed countries.

- In economy which sector creates opportunities for employment of citizen?
- What do you mean by economic way of life?
- Explain the contribution of sector indicated in the stem in our economy.
- How can we turn our population into human resource like Japan and Singapore?