

Question-1: What are the types of risks across the adolescents during their puberty?

Answer: The types of risks across the adolescents during their puberty are as follows:

1. Being inspired by their peers they may engage in dangerous activities.
2. Due to inquisition or bad company they may involve themselves in smoking, addiction in drugs, illicit and multifarious anti-social activities.
3. Lack of proper knowledge or reproductive health, the possible transmission of contagious diseases in reproductive organs may occur.

Question-2: What are the measures for eliminating the risk during the puberty of adolescent?

Answer: The measures for eliminating the risk during the puberty of adolescent are as follows:

1. Decisions should not be taken either being based by friends or being curious. Decisions on any issue should be taken concerning the good or bad sides of an activity.
2. A friendly relationship should be maintained with parents, elder brothers and sisters. If any questions arise in their mind or they fall in a problem, they should discuss the matter with them and ask for their help.
3. One can keep himself/herself away from such unwanted activities if he/she gets involved with games, sports and cultural activities.
4. Reproductive health rules are to be complied with sincerity.

Dear students, now you will try to solve the answer of the following questions

1. Why the children try to get new experience?
2. Why the adolescent takes wrong decision?
3. When the children need counseling?
4. When the adolescent will be able to combat the serious problems?
5. Who are to come across the various risks?
6. How the adolescent may engage in dangerous activities?
7. How the children may involve in smoking , addiction, illicit and multifarious anti social activities.
8. How will you take decision on any issue of an activities?
9. When the adolescent should discuss the matter with their parents, elder brothers, sister and their teachers?
10. When one can keep away from unwanted activities?
11. When reproductive health rules are to be complied with sincerely?