Read the text and answer the question 3& 4.

HasonRaja was born in 1854 in a wealthy landlord's family in Sylhet. He did not receive much formal education. In his youth, he led a life of luxury. He had everything —money, comfort and pleasure. At one time he understood that all these are meaningless. He gave away all of his properties. He started to think about the Creator, life, death and mankind. Hason Raja wrote a lot of songs, perhaps about a thousand in number. His book called "HasonUdash" was published in 1906. The book had 206 songs in it. In his songs he called himself 'Crazy Hason Raja' or 'PaglaHason Raja'. A volume called "Hason Raja Samagra" (complete works of Hason Raja) was also published. The book contained 500 poems and songs. Some of the songs were written by the poet in Hindi. Hason Raja' song were always popular in Sylhet. But soon they spread all over Bangladesh and beyond. In India's West Bengal, some eminent folk singers made Hason Raja's songs popular.
