

Subject: Bangladesh and Global StudiesRevision: Chapter-7: Economy of Bangladesh

Students will read these chapters properly and write down the answers of following questions:

Short Questions:

- 1) What is called economic way of life?
- 2) What is the one of the main source of industrial raw materials?
- 3) How does a farmer contribute to the economic development of the country?
- 4) What is the difference between urban and rural life of economy?
- 5) Who keep the urban economic life active?
- 6) What is domestic trade?
- 7) How does foreign trade strengthen our economy?
- 8) Give two example of service sector.
- 9) Mention the potential sectors in the economic development of Bangladesh.
- 10) What do you mean by human resources?
- 11) What is the role of state in creating human resources?
- 12) What is the role of people in creating human resources?

Creative Questions:

1. Ashraf ali makes leather bags in his factory. In the first year, a small number of his bags were sold in England. But after three years, a great demand of his products in the European countries is noticed. On the other hand, his wife jamila sells more than a hundred eggs in the market from the farm in the yard. By dint of their joint effort, they are happy in their family life.
 - a) What percentage of the population of Bangladesh lives in urban areas?
 - b) Why Bangladesh is called agricultural country? Explain.
 - c) The features of which economic sector does ms.Jamila's work have affinity with?
 - d) Whose economic work between Ashraf Ali and mrs.Jamila is more helpful to economic development? Give reason for your answer.
2. Mr. Zahid is a doctor. He gives healthcare in his living town and home district. But his younger brother is an unemployed youth. He passes his time by watching TV, subscribing internet etc.
 - a) What is Domestic Trade?
 - b) What is the difference between urban and rural life of economy of Bangladesh?
 - c) Which economic sector does Mr. Zahid's work affinity with? Describe the contribution of this sector in the economy of Bangladesh.
 - d) How can the younger brother of Mr. Zahid turn into human resource?

Prepared by
Zakiya Sultana
Assistant Teacher(morning)

Revision

Subject Teachers' Signature

Responsible Teachers' Signature

Work