Shrine means a sacred place. The shrines are named after deities or saint's names. Visiting the shrines refers to showing reverence for our deities and saints. Mind becomes pious. We can get rid of our sins and achieve virtues. Peace abides in mind. So, the sacred place from where we can get rid of sins and achieve virtues is called shrine. People visit shrines to feel close to God. Shrines are the best places for religious activities.

When we have a bath and pass the nights at holy places our mind becomes pure. A pious person can't do any harm to others. One can gain heaven by virtue of shrines. Chandranath, Langalbanda, Gaya, Kashi, Mathura, Vrindavan, etc. are the famous places of pilgrimage.

Here some holy places are described:

Langalbanda:

Langalbanda is a famous shrine in Bangladesh. It is situated in Narayanganj on the bank of Brahmaputra River. This is an ancient place of pilgrimage. The holy baths take place here on the Shukla Ashtomy day of the month of Chaitra. By taking a bath people can get rid of sins.
