

Answer of Lecture Sheet, 3rd Term, 2020*Class: Four, Subject: English Literature*Book: Cosmo English Literature Book

Prepared by: Shamima Rahman

Teacher, Cosmo School, Main Campus

2. Topic: My Early Home*Date: 05.10.2020*1. Word meaning:

- a) Brook (n.) – a small stream
- b) Colts (n.) – young male horses
- c) Gallop (n.) – the fastest pace of a horse
- d) Trot (v.)– run slowly
- e) Temper (n.)- state of mind

2. Match the following words from column A with column B to make complete sentences and write down on the answer script :

| Column A                 | Column B                                 |
|---------------------------------|---|
| a) There was a plough-boy, Dick | i. good, kind hearted man.                      |
| b) Our master was a             | ii. so, he called me Darkie.                    |
| c) Young colt has               | iii. her carrots with relish.                   |
| d) I was dull black             | iv. never forgotten his mother's advice.        |
| e) She would eat                | v. who came at the field to pluck blackberries. |

Answer:

(a+v)= There was a plough-boy, Dick- who came at the field to pluck blackberries.

(b+i)= Our master was a- good, kind hearted man.

(c+ iv)= Young colt has- never forgotten his mother's advice.

(d+ii)= I was dull black- so, he called me Darkie.

(e+iii)= She would eat- her carrots with relish.

3. Re-arrange the following sentences chronologically with punctuation:

Re-arrange the following sentences:

- a) We were all fond to him, and my mother loved him very much.
- b) Our master was a good, kind man.
- c) He spoke as kindly to us as he did to his little children.
- d) He gave us food, good lodging and kind words.
- e) I was a dull black, so he called me Darkie.
- f) When we saw him at the gate, she would neigh with joy and trot up to him.
- g) He would pat and stroke her and say, "Well, old pet, and how is your little Darkie?"

Answer:

|   |    |     |    |   |    |     |
|---|----|-----|----|---|----|-----|
| i | ii | iii | iv | v | vi | vii |
| b | d  | c   | a  | f | g  | e   |

- a. Our master was a good, kind man.
- b. He gave us good food, good lodging and kind words.
- c. He spoke as kindly to us as he did to his little children.
- d. We were all fond of him, and my mother loved him very much.
- e. When she saw him at the gate, she would neigh with joy and trot up to him.
- f. He would pat and stroke her and say, "Well, old pet, and how is your little Darkie?"
- g. I was a dull black, so he called me Darkie.

4. Answer the following questions:

- a) Where did the master's house stand by?

Ans. The master's house stood by the roadside.

- b) Why did master call the colt Darkie?

Ans. Master called the colt Darkie because it was dull black.

- c) What was the advice of Duchess?

Ans. The advice of Duchess was Darkie should learn good manner from his family and he should behave well with everybody.