1. Answer of broad questions:

- a) Patriotism is expressed through man's work and behaviour. It is exposed through hard work and sacrifice for the welfare of the country. The patriots jump over the enemy when the country is attacked. They fight and protect the independence of the country. They work for the country's prosperity. If necessary, they even sacrifice their life laughingly for the country.

- b) Patriotism is the source of self-dignity. It is part of humanity. Patriotism helps man transcend selfishness, sectarian and communal narrowness and political differences. It inspires all irrespective of caste, creed and religion to work unitedly and unanimously. It inspires them for self-dedication to the welfare of the country. Patriotism creates emotion, zeal and a spirit of work in man. It works as an inspiring power for progress of the country and the nation. So, the importance of patriotism is unlimited for the development of a nation and its country.

- c) The affection and love for the country is called patriotism. Patriotism is a source of dignity and a part of humanity. It creates emotion and enthusiasm in people. There are responsibilities of people to their country. If the country is attacked by the enemies, it is their duty to free the country from the enemies. If needed, they have to sacrifice their lives for the sake of the country. They are to die one day. It will be a heroic death if they die for the sake of the country.
- d) If a man dies in the war of independence, he becomes immortal in the earth. A patriot fights and protects the independence of the country. If necessary, he even sacrifices his life laughingly for the country. Those who sacrifice their lives for their country, they are ever memorable and respectable persons. They are ever remembered for their patriotism. So, those who sacrifice their lives laughingly for the sake of their country remain immortal after death.
- e) We will love our country because she gives us light, air, food, drink etc. We can fulfill our basic needs from our country. Patriotism is the source of self-dignity. It is a part of humanity. It inspires all irrespective of caste, creed and religion to work unitedly and unanimously. It inspires all for self-dedication to the welfare of the country. It creates emotion, zeal and a spirit of work in man. For these reasons, we should love our country.
