

Chapter-3

Lesson-10=Sura An-Nasr

Sura An-Nasr

Sura An-Nasr was revealed during the farewell Hajj in Makka. But, as the suras revealed after 'Hizrat' (migration) are recognized as Madani Suras. In this respect sera An-Nasr is a Madani Sura. It has got three ayats. Sura An-Nasr is the 110th sera of the Holy Quran. It has been named An-Nasr from the word 'Nasr' used in it.

- 1) What is the position of sura An-Nasr in Al-Quran?
- 2) Why is sura An-Nasr called a Madani Sura?
- 3) Why has this sura been called sura Nasr?

Translation

In the name of the Ever-Gracious and the most Benevolent Allah.

1. When there will be Allah's support and victory.
2. And you will watch people entering into the religion of Allah.
3. Then you announce the holiness and grandeur of your cherisher along with your admiration for Him and make an apology to Him. It is He who is the grantor of confessions.

- 4) Write the translation of sura An-Nasr.

Explanation

It has been narrated in the Hadith that Sura An-Nasr is the very last revealed sura of the Holy Quran. That means, no full sura was revealed after this one. The incident of people accepting Islam in groups after the victory over Makka has been mentioned in this sura. It was ment that the necessity of Prophet (Sm.)'s responsibilities of prophethood came to an end because of the victory of Islam. After this sura was revealed, some very renowned followers (sahabi's) had understood that the demise of Prophet (Sm.) was not far away. It has been indicated in this sura that the reason of prophet (Sm.)'s appearance and staying in this world was over. It is also realized from the sura that, when there is Allah's supports in any issue, many impossible tasks can also be accomplished. Then it is essential to declare the glory of Allah.

- 5) What is the las revealed full sura?
- 6) Why did Allah reveal sura An-Nasr
- 7) Which sura indicates the ending of Prophet's (sm) prophethood?

Teachings: The teachings of this sura are as follows-

- We need Allah's support in all our tasks.
- Success cannot be achieved without help from Allah.
- We should declare the holiness of Allah and express admirations for Him if we achieve success in any work.
- We should confess and apologize to Allah for all kinds of mistakes, sins or crimes.

8) Which teachings of sura An-Nasr will you apply to lead your life? explain

9) What can you learn from An-Nasr?