

Creative question:

1. Good citizens alone can play the necessary role to remove all the barriers of socio-economic development. They can lead up to the expectation of the country. So a good citizen is a valuable resource of a country

- a) What is the position of Bangladesh in terms of population?
- b) Write the attributes of a citizen.
- c) As the citizens have some rights they also have some duties. Explain.
- d) “The different socio-economic and political problems influence the growth of a good citizen. Discuss the barriers to be a good citizen.

2. Mr. Taslim is a citizen of Bangladesh. He is educated and also educating his children. He pays his taxes on time and encourages other people to do the same.

- a. Who are citizen?
- b. Why does pompousness act as a barrier in becoming good citizen?
- c. How a citizen can turn into a good citizen.
- a) Mr. Taslim is a good citizen of Bangladesh. What role can he play in the socio-economic advancement of the nation? Discuss it.

*After reading whole chapter students will solve Creative questions from the text book.

Short Question (a & b types)

1. Who are citizen?
2. Who is the most valuable resource of the country?
3. What are the characteristics of good citizen?
4. “Intelligent citizen is a resource for any nation”. Explain.
5. Explain “conscientiousness”.
6. What is called indifference?
7. “Self-Interest is a great impediment on the way of becoming a good citizen”. Explain.
8. What is “Sectarianism”?
9. Write down 5 barriers to being a good citizen.
10. What measures should be taken to remove the barriers to being a good citizen?
11. Identify the importance of good citizens in Bangladesh.
12. What are called basic rights of citizen?
13. Write down 5 basic rights of citizen.
14. Mention 5 duties and responsibilities of citizen to the state.