

Create question:

1. The social change means the change in social structure and its activities. The fundamental structure of every society is formed through the production system of that society and the relationship among various professionals related to that system, besides some other super structure are also developed along with this structure.
 - a) Write the definition of MacIver about social change.
 - b) How will you define women empowerment?
 - c) Explain the role of technological knowledge in the change of rural agriculture.
 - d) Analyze the importance of education in social change.
2. Liton returned home from UN mission by spending long time around ten years. He observed that dependency on agriculture has been reduced. Moral value had declined but living standard; rate of literacy has been increased.
 - a) What is urbanization?
 - b) How will you define Women Empowerment?
 - c) Identify the role of agricultural technologies in social change?
 - d) Analyse the impact of social changes on the rural and urban societies of Bangladesh.

3.

Women empowerment	The rise of crime
Education of superstitions	Increase in production
Poverty alleviation	Drug addiction
Increase in self confidence	Increase in per capita income

Table: A

Table: B

- a) “Social change is the change in the human relationship.”—Who said this?
- b) Explain the impacts of cultural factor on social change.
- c) Explain the positive side of the factor which has effect on the indicators in Table ‘A’.
- d) The factor of the indicators in Table ‘B’ is blessing in one side and curse in the other--do you agree to this statement? Give reason.

4. Sema was surprised after seeing the huge change of her friend Sarifa when she returned from abroad. Though Sarifa was not highly educated like Sema but she received training from some organizations which helped her to be self-employed. After that she became a successful business woman. The cause behind her success is some important factor of social change.

- a) What did sociologist Kingsley Devis say about social change?
- b) What is industrialization?
- c) Explain the elements of nature to the social change.
- d) "The contribution of women has great influence on social change." Explain.

5. Fahima and Rihana work in a garments factory coming in town. In their town many new factories, industries have been built up now. The town is also expanding. Consequently mentality, values and philosophy of life among people are getting change.

- a) What is social change?
- b) Explain the role of technology for the change of society?
- c) Which components are indicated in the stem? Explain.
- d) "The role of women like Fahima and Rihana are most important for social change"-Justify it

6. Shamim who is from Bhushirbandar village passed M.Ag from Mymensingh Agricultural University. Without trying get any job, he returned to his village and started to cultivate a few bighas land of his father. His father was so worried about the future of his son. But Shamim used improved type of seeds, irrigation, and fertilizer and applies the insecticides properly so that his agricultural production increased much. So, in his village an enthusiasm for creating something new is born and the process of forming new society begins.

- a) Write the definition of social change by Kingsley Davis?
- b) "The communication is one of the main factors of social change" Explain it.
- c) By using how many factors Shamim has brought the social change in his village? Explain it.
- d) Do you think that the factor which is given in the stem can only play important role for the whole development of a country? Give your opinion.

Nabanita Ghosh

BGS Teacher of Cosmo School.

*Practice creative questions from the text book.