

10. Topic: The Little Plant*Lecture-1*Poem Writing:*The Little Plant–Kate Louise Brown

In the heart of a seed,

Buried deep so deep,

A dear little plant

Lay fast asleep.

“Wake,” said the sunshine,

“And creep to the light.”

Lecture-2*Answer each question in one sentence:

1) Where is a little plant buried deep?

Ans. A dear little plant is buried deep in the heart of a seed.

2) What did the sunshine say to the dear little plant?

Ans. The sunshine told the dear little plant to wake and creep to the light.

3) Who else told the little plant to wake?

Ans. The raindrops also told the little plant to wake.

4) What did the little plant do hearing the voice of the sunshine and the raindrops?

Ans. The little plant rose hearing the voice of the sunshine and the raindrops.

5) What did the little plant see?

Ans. The little plant saw that the outside world is wonderful.