Lecture-1

Date: 30.06.2020

Theme of the poem:

The poem The Little Plant is about where plant comes from and how it grows. We know that plant comes from the ground (soil) and it needs some natural things like sunlight, air and water to grow (sprout).

Let's recite the first six lines of the poem today.

The Little Plant

–Kate Louise Brown

In the heart of a seed,
Buried deep so deep,
A dear little plant

Lay fast asleep.
“Wake,” said the sunshine,
“And creep to the light.”

(First 6 lines)

Explanation:

Line 1, 2:

In the heart of a seed,
Buried deep so deep,

A little plant lives in the center or middle part of the seed which is buried deep in the ground. The seed is covered with soil.

Lines 3, 4:

A dear little plant
Lay fast asleep.

The little plant sleeps in the seed. It needs some important things from the nature like sunlight, water and air to grow as a plant with root, stem and green leaf.

Lines 5, 6:

“Wake,” said the sunshine,
“And creep to the light.”

Now, the sunshine calls the little plant to come out from the ground. So, it gets sunlight to grow as a plant.
