1. Match the Column-A with Column-B to make correct sentences: 1×5=5

Column-A	Column-B
a) God Shiva is fond of	i) at the root of every creation.
b) God's grace lies	ii) we call this embodiment a god or goddess.
c) The skin colour of god Shiva is	iii) wood-apple leaves.
d) When a virtue or a power of God gets embodied,	iv) a name of god Shiva.
e) Vaiddanath is	v) as white as snow.

2. Identify true or false of the following sentences: 0.5×10=5

a) The skin colour of Brahmaa is white.

b) There are a container of ghee and a holy water jug in the two left hands of Brahmaa.

c) Brahmaa suppresses the knaves and the mischievous.

d) Ma Durga gives us strength and force, valour and spirit.

e) Garuda bird is the carrier of god Shiva.

f) There is a temple of Brahmaa at a holy place for pilgrimage named Pushkar in the Indian-Subcontinent.

g) The other name of Vishnu is Ruddra.

h) On the 15th day of the new moon in the month of Falgun the worship of Shiva can be specially done.

i) Ma Durga has five eyes.

j) Without the holy basil leaf the worship of Vishnu cannot be done.

3. Answer the following questions in one word: 0.5×10=5

a) Who is the god of creation?

b) What is god Shiva's vehicle?

c) Who loves red flowers?

d) Who is the goddess of power?

e) What is god Shiva's main weapon?

f) Who is eternal, timeless and perpetual?

g) Who remains immortal?

h) How many hands does Ma Durga have?

i) Which god puts wear of tiger skin?

j) What is Brahmaa's seat?

4. Answer the following questions in brief: 1×5=5

a) What are there in two right hands of Vishnu?

b) When do gods and goddesses become pleased?

c) Write seven names of Lord Shiva.

d) What will be happened if we worship god Shiva?

e) Write down the meaning of the hymn for the Salutation of Ma Durga.