

Lecture Sheet-2

Chapter- 7: Human Rights

Topic-2: The rights of autistic children

Note:

- At first read the related topic from the text book.
- Rights: Rights are legal, social, or ethical principles of freedom or entitlement.
Example: A person to be treated with respect and dignity even after being found guilty of a crime.
- Autism: ‘Autism’ is a developmental disorder characterized by difficulties with social interaction and communication and by restricted and repetitive behavior.
So, the people with autism/disabilities have the right not to be treated inhumanely or against their will and to have input into planning, their care and support, as well as where they live and in all other aspects of their lives. They also have the right to manage their own finances and make decisions for themselves

- Symbol of Autism:

- What kind of problem is autism?

Autism is a problem of developmental disorder that is a set of related condition with social interaction, communication and behavior.

- Characteristics of autistic children:

- i) Some autistic children study just like other children.
- ii) Autistic children usually have good health.
- iii) Some autistic children are very talented in mathematics, art, or music.
- iv) They are sensitive to light, sound, speed, touch, smell, taste.
- v) They can get addicted to a particular toy and hung on to it for hours.
- vi) They like to do the same routine, and get hyper if that changes.
- vii) Autistic children have special attraction for a particular thing, and they always keep it with them.

- Helping a friend with autism in our school:

All children with autism have exceptional strengths as well. It is extremely important to focus on these strengths, that is why we should behave nicely with them.

Ways to help a friend with autism in our school:

- i) Learn about autism
- ii) We should understand them
- iii) We should be patient
- iv) We should be inclusive
- v) We should be tolerant of each other's differences.

PS: * Study the lecture sheet to upgrade your learning curve and you will find answer to the question from work sheet.

 If you find it difficult to follow the video you can always pause and watch the screen to make it more understandable. Also, everything is shared in the lecture sheet for better understanding.

 What you have learnt today, that you have to orally share the lesson with your afternoon teacher.

Thank you
Samia Laboni