At last on the orders of Allah he left Makkah and migrated to Madina. When migrating, he was very pained to leave Makkah, the land of his birth. Time and again he was looking at Makkah while leaving it. 'Tears rolled down from his eyes. In a sorrowful voice he uttered:

O, City of Makkah! How beautiful you are!
You are my land of birth,
I love you
You are very dear to me
Alas! If my own people did not hatch plot against me and would not have forced me out of this land,
I would have never left you, never!
