

Creative question:-

1. Event -1

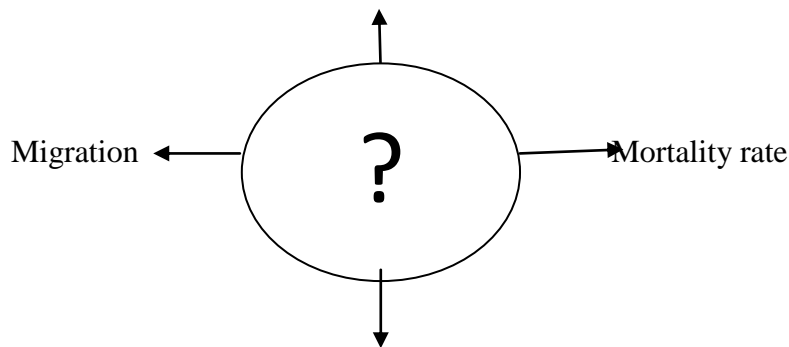

Abdullah and Haider are two friends. They are well known as successful businessmen to all at Rampal in Bagerhat. But they originally came from Satkhira and Pabna.

Event-2

On the other hand Sarifullah with his family have been living in the Middle East for 15 years. Their children haven't ever been to the birth place of their ancestors.

- What is birth rate?
- Explain one cause of decrease in mortality of the Bangladeshi people.
- What type of element for change of population is mentioned in event-1? Explain.
- The migration mentioned in event-2 is another reason for change of population. Give your opinion in support of your answer.

2. Birth rate

- What is demography?
- What do you mean by migration?
- Identify the dominant elements of population change.
- Which is mentioned (?) in the stem? What problems are created by it?

3. Population is not same in all countries of the world. In some countries the population is large, while it is small in some other countries. Birth rate and mortality rate are depended on some factors.

- What is the present population of Bangladesh?
- Write the causes of migration.
- Explain the causes of discrepancy in mortality rates.
- Dissimilarity of birth rate effects on the socio-economic condition of the country.---
Evaluate this statement.

Read the text book and answer the following questions:

- What is Demography?
- What is the present population of Bangladesh?
- What is dominant element?

4. How many dominant elements for change of population?
5. What is Mortality rate?
6. What is migration? How many types of Migration?
7. What is Social mobility?
8. Causes of Dissimilarity in Birth, Mortality and Migration and its effect in our socio-economic life.

Nabanita Ghosh

BGS Teacher of Cosmo School.

