

5. Rearrange the following sentences in correct order in your answer script. You do not need to reproduce the sentences in your script. Only the corresponding numbers of the sentences need to be written.

- (a) So, when the crisis period came, he suffered a lot with his family.
- (b) Once there lived two friends named Kamal and Jamal.
- (c) He had no crisis of food during the crisis period.
- (d) They were so intimate friends but were different by nature.
- (e) On the other hand, Jamal did no work and spent his time merrily.
- (f) Kamal was very hard-working while Jamal was very lazy.
- (g) He dug the soil, ploughed it and sowed seeds in it.
- (h) Kamal worked hard in his fields.
- (i) He had to beg from door to door to maintain his family.
- (j) So, during the harvesting season, he had plenty of rice in his store.

Self Practice

6. Rearrange the following sentences in correct order in your answer script. You do not need to reproduce the sentences in your script. Only the corresponding numbers of the sentences need to be written.

- (a) She replied that she loved him more than anything else.
- (b) The king could not be happy and did not give her any portion of his kingdom.
- (c) There lived a king in England named Lear.
- (d) First, he wanted to test them how much they loved their old father.
- (e) He grew so old and wanted to divide the kingdom among his three daughters, Regan, Goneril and Cordelia.
- (f) The king did the same thing.
- (g) The king became so glad and gave her one-third of his kingdom.
- (h) His youngest daughter replied that she loved him as much she should love him.
- (i) Then the turn of Goneril came and she replied in the same language.
- (j) He first called the eldest daughter Regan and asked her how much she loved her father.

Self Practice

7. Rearrange the following sentences in correct order in your answer script. You do not need to reproduce the sentences in your script. Only the corresponding numbers of the sentences need to be written.

- (a) So, everybody loved and respected them.
- (b) They lost their parents at their early age.
- (c) Harun was the elder brother and Hamid was the younger one.
- (d) Hamid respected his elder brother from the core of his heart.
- (e) There lived two brothers in a certain village.
- (f) Both of them were service holders.
- (g) They were on good terms with each other.
- (h) They helped each other in the event of any crisis.
- (i) They played a role model of mutual cooperation throughout their life.
- (j) Harun looked so smart and was free from any major disease.

Self Practice

8. Rearrange the following sentences in correct order in your answer script. You do not need to reproduce the sentences in your script. Only the corresponding numbers of the sentences need to be written.

- (a) His master became pleased with Asgar's performance and decided to help him to build up his career.
- (b) He was so sincere in his work.
- (c) He left home for Khulna at 12.
- (d) He was poor but honest and hard-working.
- (e) He always thought of how to change his lifestyle by working hard.
- (f) Asgar was a poor orphan boy living in a village.
- (g) He completed his primary education, but could not continue his studies because of poverty.
- (h) He used to work in his master's fish shop.
- (i) He got shelter in the house of a rich man.
- (j) In a short time, he learnt many things of the business.

Self Practice