

COSMO SCHOOL

Class-Six

English 2nd Paper

Interrogative Sentence

To make Passive Voice from Interrogative Active Voice, the candidates should Understand following Rules.....

Rule 1

If any Interrogative Sentence starts from do, does or did then while preparing Passive Voice, the candidates should use is/are/am/was and were according to the Number & Person of Object.

Active: Does he help you?

Passive: Are you helped by him?

Active: Did he do this work?

Passive: Was this work done by him?

Rule 2

When the Interrogative Sentence starts from is/are/am/was and were, then we should use being after the subject and is/are/am/was and were in starting of the sentences.

Active: Are you doing this work?

Passive: Is this work being done by you?

Active: Was she reading a novel?

Passive: Was a novel being read by her?

Rule 3

When the Interrogative Sentence starts from has/have and had, then we should use been after the subject and has/have and had in starting of the sentences.

Active: Has he helped you?

Passive: Have you been helped by him?

Active: Had he finished the work?

Passive: Had the work been finished by him?

Rule 4

When the Interrogative Sentence starts from shall/will/can and should, then we should use be after the new subject and shall/will/can and should in starting of the sentences.

Active: Can he do this work?

Passive: Can this work be done by him?

Active: Will you teach the children?

Passive: Will the children be taught by you?

Rule 5

When the Interrogative Sentence starts from Why/When and How, then we should use them in starting of the sentences and who should replace by By Whom.

Active: Who has done this work?

Passive: By Whom has this work been done?

Active: When did you do this work?

Passive: When was this work done by you?

Toyab Hossain

[toyab.hossain@gmail.com]