

Worksheet on Lesson – 22

1. Fill in the gaps with the words given in the box below:

pyramids	place	capital	ancient	Egyptian
wonders	huge	famous	pharaoh	workers

The Pyramids are (a) _____ graveyards for the (b) _____ kings and queens of Egypt. These kings and queens are known as the (c) _____. It needed a few thousands (d) _____ to build the pyramids. The most (e) _____ Egyptian (f) _____ are the Giza pyramids. Giza is a (g) _____ near Cairo, the (h) _____ of Egypt. The pyramids of Khufur at Giza is the (i) _____ Egyptian pyramid. It is the only one of (j) _____ still in existence.

2. Put the verbs in brackets into the correct tense.

The Eiffel Tower is a lattice tower in Paris. It (a) _____ (be) built in 1889. Now it (b) _____ (symbolize) the cultural icon of France. It stands one of the most recognizable structures in the world too. The tower (c) _____ (be) famous as the tallest construction in Paris and the most visited paid monument the world. Millions of people (d) _____ (ascend) it every year. It is 320 meters tall. The tower (e) _____ (have) three levels for visitors. A visitor (f) _____ (have) to walk over 300 steps to go from ground level to the first level. The distance (g) _____ (remain) the same between the first and the second level. The third and highest level can be (h) _____ (access) only by lift. The tower is (i) _____ (name) after the engineer Gustave Eiffel, whose company (j) _____ (design) and build the tower.

3. Answer the following questions.

- Write an example of Mughal architecture.
- What is TajMahal known as?
- Why TajMahal was built?
- How many years and workers did it take to complete the TajMahal?
- Who is Mamtaj? When did she die?