Work sheet for class-6

Simple equation

Subject teacher: Tipu sir

1.If the price of a pen is less than its specified price by 2 taka, the price would be 10 taka. What is the price of the pen?

a) Alif has 4 times more chocolates than Galib.They have 25 chocolates together. How many chocolate do both of them individually have?
b) The sum of two consecutive even natural numbers is 30. Find the numbers
c) The sum of three consecutive odd natural numbers 27. Find the numbers

2. If 5 is subtracted from the four times of a number, the obtained subtraction will be 19 more than twice the number

a) If the number is X , make an equation in the light of the information
b) Determine the number.
c) If the number is the sum of three consecutive natural numbers, determine the smallest number.