

Chapter-3=Lesson-13

Three Verses for Munazat

Munazat means to pray to Allah. The Greatness of Allah is proved by munazat. And only the person who is weak, helpless seeks help. And the person who helps is usually strong and powerful. We express our weaknesses and helplessness to Allah through munazat. At the same time, we acknowledge the independence, power, kindness etc. all these qualities of Allah. So, munazat is also a kind of ibadat. Allah is pleased with this munazat. There are many hadith of munazat. We will learn these three munazats below:

Hadith-1

Meaning: "Allah, I seek Hedayat, (the direction of the straight path), Taqwa, purity from you and seek relief from scarcity." (Sahih Muslim and Jami Tirmidhi)

Hadith 2:

Meaning: "Allah, forgive me, have mercy upon me, keep me safe and provide me with your blessings." (Sahih Muslim)

Hadith 3:

Meaning: "Allah, You can bring change to our souls. Keep our souls firm on Your religion (Islam)."
(Jami Tirmidhi)

It is a matter of fortune for a believer to be firm and steady on his religion. On this matter, a prayer has been performed to Allah in the hadith above.

We will learn those munazats and their meanings too. And then, through these we will pray to Allah heartily. This will please Allah, the Almighty. He will forgive us and have mercy on us. Thus, we will achieve the blessings both in this world and in Akhirat.
