

Creative question:-

1.

- a. What is the official name of Korea?
 - b. Which country is called the “country of rising sun” and why?
 - c. Describe the geography and climate of China.
 - d. “Bangladesh has friendly relationship with China.” Evaluate it.
2. Anindya went to a neighboring country with his parents on summer holidays. To the north of the country lie the Himalays and to the west lie the Hindukush and the Suleman ranges. The country is rich in ancient art and civilization.
- a. What is the name of the capital of Malaysia?
 - b. What do you understand by a multi-raced country?
 - c. Describe the similarities in climate of Bangladesh and the country that Anindya was visited.
 - d. Explain the importance of the friendship and cooperation of Bangladesh with the country that Anindya was visited.

3.

- a. What is the name of the largest mountain range in the world?
- b. Why India is called the country that has one of the oldest rich civilizations in the world?
- c. What is the name of the country that has been mentioned in the stem?
Write its climate.
- d. Make a comparative analysis of economics of China and the mentioned country.

4. Recently an Asian country wanted to construct a dam at the border area named Tipaimukhn in Sylhet. For this has created disputes among the people of Bangladesh. One group explained that, this one would hamper the situation and might be destructive for the vast area of Bangladesh. Whereas other group replied that the dam would not be destructive to the area near Tipaimukh dam. The authority concerned of that country had given hope that would not be destructive.

- a. How many countries in Asia?
- b. In what fields Bangladesh has friendly cooperation with the countries of Asia?
- c. What is the name of the country that is mentioned in the above stem?
Describe the location of mentioned country.
- d. Discuss the similarities of that country with Bangladesh.

*Solve Creative questions from the text book.

Nabanita Ghosh

BGS teacher of Cosmo School

Date-28.10.2020