

Q-1: What is oppression?

Ans: If somebody is compelled to do anything against his/her will and if this causes any physical & mental damage, this can be called oppression.

Q-2: How many types of oppression are there?

Ans: The innocent children are oppressed in three ways/ there are three types of oppression. i.e.

(a) Physical (b) Mental & (c) Sexual oppression

Q-3: What is physical oppression?

Ans: If somebody is oppressed physically then it is called physical oppression.

Q-4: What is mental oppression?

Ans: The harsh behavior, words etc. afflict the children & hinder their mental development. These are called mental oppression i.e. scolded, rebuke, insult, shouting etc.

Q-5: What is Sexual oppression?

Ans: Sexual oppression is another aspect which causes in compensable damage to a child. If some parts of the body of a girl, specially covered parts is touched with hands or with any other portion of his body with a wrong intention is called sexual oppression. It is very much painful for a girl to become back to a normal life after being victimized sexually. She becomes humiliated personally in her family & society.

Q-6: What is child marriage?

Ans: If any marriage takes place at their early age, it may be called child marriage. According to the 'Marriage registration act' now prevailing in Bangladesh, the marriage between a male & female below the age level of 21 & 18 years of age respectively is strictly prohibited legally.

Now you will try to solve the answer of the following questions

1. What are considered as the act of oppression?
2. Why is it very painful for a girl to become back in normal life?
3. When is the marriage strictly prohibited legally between a male & female according to prevail 'marriage registration acts' in Bangladesh?
4. Who are become the most victims of oppression in our country?
5. Who are becomes humiliated personally in our family & society?
6. Who are prone to get their child early marriage?
7. What are the main reasons of child marriage?
8. What are the results of child marriage?
9. What types of necessary measures (Steps) are to be taken in order to buildup the children as the ideal citizen of the future day of our country?