

Worksheet on Unit – 6

Lesson (1-3)

Lesson – 1: A day in Zishan’s Life

Activity:

1. Answer the following questions:

- a. Look at Zishan’s daily routine and give your opinion about the statement, “All work and no play will make Zishan a dull boy.”
- b. Why do you think Zishan spends too much/ too little/ the right amount of time on his studies?
- c. How much time do you spend on your study?

Lesson – 2: Leisure

Activity:

1. Find out the appropriate synonymous words from the options.

a. Stare

- i. Lay eyes on    ii. Look away    iii. Overlook    iv. Looking in front

b. Bough

- i. Root of tree    ii. Branch of tree    iii. Leaves of tree    iv. Kind of tree

c. beneath

- i. Surface    ii. Overhead    iii. Under    iv. Beside

d. Stream

- i. flooded    ii. Empty    iii. Shiny    iv. Steamy

e. Wood

- i. Old tree    ii. Bamboo    iii. Area    iv. Forest

2. Answer the following questions:

- a. What does the poet think of life today as mentioned in the first 2 lines?
- b. Make a list of beautiful things the poet talks about in the poem.
- c. What is the poet trying to say in the last 2 lines?
- d. Why does the poet think that we have no time for stand and stare?

Lesson – 3: What are they doing?

Activity:

Write a short paragraph on “Your Leisure Activities” answering the following questions:

- a. What free time/ leisure activities do you do?
- b. Where and who do you do your leisure activity/activities with?
- c. Why do you like or dislike to do your leisure activity/activities?
- d. If there are any problems/difficulties in doing your leisure activities? If any, describe them.

Sabiha Sultana Shoshi
Assistant Teacher, English
Cosmo School
Email: shoshi02@yahoo.com