

Chapter-4

Worksheet-10

CQ Practice- Sylhet Board 2018

- 1) Liza and Rifa are classmates. Along with her being a brilliant student, Liza is very active in extracurricular activities. She has been elected a representative of the 'student cabinet' twice. When a student of a junior class came up with a suggestion at a cultural function, she accepts it gladly. As a student, Rifa is not much meritorious. Upon hearing appreciation about Liza from a friend of hers, she became very jealous. Even when one day Liza offered Rifa to perform some responsibilities at a function, she refused with despicability.
 - a) What is called indecency?
 - b) Why is Allah only one to have vanity?
 - c) Which attribute has been exposed in the character of Liza? Explain.
 - d) Analyse the consequences of the event in the textbook that has similarity with the activities of Rifa.

- 2) Hammad is a meritorious student. He goes to school regularly. One day on his way to school, he saw an injured person and helped him reach hospital and arranged treatment for him. When asked about his delay in school by the teacher, he narrated the story. Besides this, on their way to school, a locally made bridge repaired. His uncle Rustam Mia made her daughter well educated. After his death, his elder brother distributed share of property of the sisters following the rules of Shariah.
 - a) On the day of Qiyamat whose parents will be given bright crowns to put on?
 - b) "under the feet of a mother, lies Jannat" explain.
 - c) Which activity in the textbook has been indicated by the activity of Hammad? explain.
 - d) Analyse the event that has been exposed through the activity of Rustam Mia.

- 3) Mr. Farid is the chief executive of an organisation. Last year he appointed a couple of employees. Although the candidates who were advanced in the recruitment examination did not get the job, the job of the candidates who did not get good scores was ensured. These candidates were found making personal contact with the chief executive before the viva voce. Even they spent a huge amount of money in this regard. On the other hand, one day his wife Parveen was walking along the lake. All on a sudden, two persons riding on a motor bike stopped beside her. She was found lying on the road in a slanting position. At one stage, her ears were found torn and it was bleeding. At the end it was seen that she had lost her smart phone, moneybag and ear rings.
 - a) What is Rishwat?
 - b) "Islamic rule is the main means of AIDS prevention" explain.
 - c) Which activity has been exposed through the activity of Mr. Farid as mentioned in the stem?
 - d) Identify the activity of the two youths in the stem and analyse its prevention.