

Class-Nine

Subject: BGS

Chapter- 07

The organs of Bangladesh Government and the Administrative systems

Lesson 7.1

#Lecture- 2:

The Executive : The executive or the Administration Department consists of all Administrative employees including the President, the cabinet, the Government officials, the security, law & order maintaining agencies, the diplomats, the officials, the security, law & order maintaining agencies, the diplomats the officers and even a Chowkidar (a village Watchman) altogether.

Two powerful executives are__

- The president
- The prime Minister

The status of the president:

Abdul Hamid

- Head of the state
- Exercise power over all person in the state
- The laws of parliament are enacted by his ratification.

Power & Functions of the president:

- To appointment of the prime minister & Administration.
- To summons, adjourns and dissolves the parliament
- To execute the ordinance making power
- To appoint the chief justice and other justice of supreme court
- To exercise a special power; power of mercy
- To authorized expenditure from the consolidated fund
- May take any defensive measure against any external aggression or internal disturbance
- May issue a proclamation of emergency

The status of the Prime minister:

- Head of the government
- Leader of the parliament
- Chief of the cabinet

Power & Functions of the president:

- To conduct and regulate all types of executive work
- The legislative actions of the parliament revolve round him/her.
- To manage the parliament with cooperation of opposition
- To advise the president to summon, adjourn and dissolve parliament
- The budget presented by finance minister in the parliament which granted by president with the advice of prime minister.
- To coordinate the government policies among all executive works of ministries, offices and directorates.
- To introduce and represent the country to the world as a spokesman
- To determine the party policy and implement the functions of ruling party
- To establish a cooperative relation with opposition party

After reading the book you will solve the worksheet