

Simple, Complex & Compound Sentences (Worksheet)

Change the sentences according to directions:

1. People who love food can taste local as well as foreign food. (Simple)
2. They are too polite to misbehave with others. (Complex)
3. Corruption is a great curse. (Complex)
4. Although Meena had picked the mango, her mother gave the larger share of it to Raju. (Compound)
5. Unfortunately child labour is accepted in our society. (Complex)
6. In a needy family of five or six children, the parents send their kids to work so that they can fill their empty stomach. (Simple)
7. We should make the habit of reading books to gain knowledge. (Compound)
8. None can receive any reward without working hard. (Complex)
9. Though computer is very essential, some of us cannot afford to buy it. (Simple)
10. There is a law to punish the terrorists but it is not properly applied. (Compound)
11. If we can do something good to the society, we can be immortal. (Simple)
12. Internet helps us to know about the world. (Complex)
13. In spite of my annoyance, I kept quiet. (Complex)
14. No human being can escape death. (Complex)
15. He has to make a division of time to do his work properly. (Compound)
16. Without reading or watching news, you cannot know about the current situation of the world. (Complex)
17. Unemployment is a state when a man has no work to earn money. (Simple)
18. While Ruplal was sleeping, he heard a sound. (Simple)
19. The cuckoo is a bird of very shy nature. (Complex)
20. The poor have to suffer much on a rainy day. (Compound)