

Answer of Lecture Sheet, 3rd Term, 2020

Class: Four, Subject: English Literature

Book: Cosmo English Literature Book

Prepared by: Shamima Rahman

Teacher, Cosmo School, Main Campus

2. Topic: My Early Home

Lecture 3 and 4

Date: 27.09.2020 and 29.09.2020 (REVISION)

Word meaning and make sentence:

1. Hedge(n.) – a line of small trees planted very close
2. Brook (n.) – a small stream
3. Colts (n.) – young male horses
4. Gallop (n.) – the fastest pace of a horse
5. Whinnied (adj.)– a soft, high sound made by a horse
6. Trot (v.)– run slowly
7. Gig (n.) – two-wheeled carriage, drawn by one horse
8. Box – (here) a blow with the fist
9. Fir (n.)- a kind of tree
10. Temper (n.)- state of mind

Make sentence: Make sentence by yourself.

A. Answer to the following questions in one sentence.

1) Where did the master's house stand by?

Ans. The master's house stood by the roadside.

2) Where did the lilies grow?

Ans. Water lilies grew in the pond near the meadow.

3) Why did master call the colt Darkie?

Ans. Master called the colt Darkie because it was dull black.

4) What was the advice of Duchess?

Ans. The advice of Duchess was Darkie should learn good manner from his family and he should behave well with everybody.

5) What did the master do with Dick?

Ans. The master punished Dick for his bad behavior.

B. Broad question:

1. Ans. The colt Darkie remembers that the first place where he and his mother Duchess lived with the other horses was a shed. There was a large meadow with a pond near the shed. He used to play with other colts and had fun.
2. Ans. Duchess taught Darkie that his father had a great name. His grandfather won the cup at the race. His grandmother had the sweetest temper among the other horses.
3. Ans. The plough- boy Dick. He had some bad manners. Sometimes Dick came into the field to eat blackberries from the hedge. He used to disturb and hurt the horses by throwing stones and stick at them.
4. Ans. The master was a good and kind man. He gave the horses good food, good lodging and spoke to them kindly. Among all the horses, Duchess and Darkie were master's favourite and took special care of them.

c. Fill in the blanks using suitable form of the given clues.

(You have to use the right forms of verb here.)

1. eaten, wanted

2. hit, hurt

3. watching, going

4. jumped, caught

5. trotted, went

6. plucked

7. gave

c. Find out whether the statements are true or false. If false then give the right answer.

1. The colt has never seen his mother kick or bite.

Ans. True.

2. When the colt was young, it ate grass.

Ans. False

Correct answer: When the colt was young, it drank milk.

3. The colt has never remembered his mother's advice.

Ans. False

Correct answer: The colt has never forgotten his mother's advice.

4. Master called Darkie 'Pet'.

Ans. False

Correct answer: Master called Duchess 'Pet'.

5. Dick is the man who looked after the horses.

Ans. False

Correct answer: Dick is the boy who always disturbed the horses.

6. Master often brought carrot for his mother.

Ans. True.

d. Match the information from column A with column B.

Column A	Column B
a) There was a plough-boy, Dick	i. good, kind hearted man.
b) Our master was a	ii. so, he called me Darkie.
c) Young colt has	iii. her carrots with relish.
d) I was dull black	iv. never forgotten his mother's advice.
e) She would eat	v. who came at the field to pluck blackberries.

Answer:

(a+v)= There was a plough-boy, Dick- who came at the field to pluck blackberries.

(b+i)= Our master was a- good, kind hearted man.

(c+ iv)= Young colt has- never forgotten his mother's advice.

(d+ii)= I was dull black- so, he called me Darkie.

(e+iii)= She would eat- her carrots with relish.

e. Re-arrange:

Re-arrange the following sentences.

- a) We were all fond to him, and my mother loved him very much.
- b) Our master was a good, kind man.
- c) He spoke as kindly to us as he did to his little children.
- d) He gave us food, good lodging and kind words.
- e) I was a dull black, so he called me Darkie.
- f) When we saw him at the gate, she would neigh with joy and trot up to him.
- g) He would pat and stroke her and say, "Well, old pet, and how is your little Darkie?"

Answer:

i	ii	iii	iv	v	vi	vii
b	d	c	a	f	g	e

- a. Our master was a good, kind man.
- b. He gave us good food, good lodging and kind words.
- c. He spoke as kindly to us as he did to his little children.
- d. We were all fond of him, and my mother loved him very much.
- e. When she saw him at the gate, she would neigh with joy and trot up to him.
- f. He would pat and stroke her and say, "Well, old pet, and how is your little Darkie?"
- g. I was a dull black, so he called me Darkie.