

Cosmo School

Class-4

BANGLADESH AND GLOBAL STUDIES

(Chapter 11- Geography of Bangladesh)

Topic- 3“ The Bay of Bengal”

Lecture-3

Day-4

Date-20/10/20

The Bay of Bengal: A sea that forms the northeastern part of the Indian Ocean. It is located in the south of Bangladesh.

The three attractive places around the Bay of Bengal:

1.Sundarban: Sundarban is located in the south-west of Bangladesh.It is named after its Sundri trees.

Five sentences about Sundarban:

- a.Sundarban is the largest mangrove forest in the world.
- b.The Sundarban was declared a UNESCO heritage site in 1997.
- c.This forest helps to protect the coast from storm and tidal waves.
- d.In the forest, there are live the world famous Royal Bengal tiger, chitra deer and birds.
- e.There are many streams and canals flows the forest which are home to crocodiles, snakes and fish.

2.Cox’s Bazar:Cox’s Bazar beach is the longest sandy beach in the world.

Six sentences about Cox’s Bazar:

- a. Cox’s Bazar is situated in Cox’s Bazar district in Chattagram division.
- b.The beach 125 kilometres along the coast of the Bay of Bengal.

- c. There are green hills and waterfalls in Cox's Bazar.
- d. To the south of Cox's Bazar is the island of St Martin, the only coral island in Bangladesh.
- e. Himchari is situated 18 kilometres south of Cox's Bazar is famous for its beautiful waterfalls.
- f. Inani Beach is located 35 kilometres south of Cox's Bazar.

3. Kuakata: The name "Kuakata" means digging well. Because 200 years ago the Rakhines came here to dig wells for drinking water.

Five sentences about Kuakata:

- a. It is located in Barishal division, almost 320 kilometres south of the capital city.
- b. There is also a 100 years old Buddhist temple.
- c. It is the only sea beach in Bangladesh where tourists can see both sunrises and sunsets from the same spot.
- d. Kuakata is called 'Sagar Kanya' meaning daughter of the sea because of its natural beauty.
- e. 100 years old Kuakata is a holy place for Hindus and the Buddhist.

Prepared by Tamanna Afrin
(Assistant Teacher)
Main Campus (Boys)